EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. George Kaplan on 27 January 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claim:

Claims 12 and 14, line 3, change "a slot-like reception" to --reception--.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: prior art of record considered as a whole alone or in combination neither anticipates nor renders obvious, a first recess and a second recess in the function part into which the flat side of the carbide plates is exchangeably inserted parallel to the smooth lower side of the gripping and holding part, a cover part inserting into the function part and having a releaseable snap-latching to upwardly fix the carbide plates inserted into the recesses, in combination with the rest of the limitations in claim 1; prior art of record considered as a whole alone or in combination neither anticipates nor renders obvious, the device body having a width precisely corresponding to the plate thickness and is fixed by an snap-latching part which engages over the carbide plate from the front in a central and
